AMRA Organized

“A Non-Profit, Non-Partisan, Non-Sectarian Association organizes to protect the earned benefits of retirees of the Uniformed Services through strength in Unity of purpose and cause”.

AMRA Membership Eligibility

- Honorably retired from the U.S. Armed Forces for length of service; all service branches, all ranks.
- Honorably retired from the Reserve and National Guard (Gray-area retirees accepted).
- Honorably retired from the U.S. Armed Forces for reasons of disability.
- 100% Service-Connected Disabled
- Surviving Spouse (widow/widower) of any of the above.

Benefits of Joining AMRA

- Membership in an Association organized for, with membership restricted to Military Retirees, 100% Service-Connected Disabled and Surviving Spouses (widows/widowers).
- Show strength and financial support necessary to preserve and protect earned benefits.
- Show support for a strong National Defense, second to none.
- Receive a quarterly newspaper and a weekly electronic newsletter focusing specifically on Military Retiree and Surviving Spouse issues and benefits.
- Be eligible to participate in excellent supplemental insurance for members and their dependents covered by TRICARE/CHAMPVA.
- Benefit from legislative support on Capitol Hill through the Association’s Legislative Advocacy program. State and local issues are addressed by AMRA Departments and local Chapters.
- Collegiate scholarship program for AMRA members, their spouses, dependent children or their grandchildren.

Visit www.amra1973.org
for current member benefit information.

AMRA’s Goals

- Oppose increases in TRICARE fees.
- Oppose taxation of the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP).
- Ensure adequate medical care at Military/VA Medical facilities for retirees and their dependents.
- Concurrent Receipt of retired pay and VA disability compensation.
- We will fight for the rights and benefits you have earned and which are threatened by those who seek to reduce the deficit at the expense of retirees. We oppose Medicare cuts, higher premiums and VA budget cuts.
